We believe in the family as God intended it to be - a holy union between one man and one woman. This covenant of marriage stands as the basis of the family, as God told Adam and Eve to 'be fruitful and multiply.' The family then became the foundation of all civilization, and it is upon this foundation that all civilizations stand or fall. Therefore, the strength of a nation is found in the strength of its families. Furthermore, we believe that God has appointed husband and wife, father and mother, with distinct functions of equal worth and value, for God made Eve 'a helper comparable to him.' It is our conviction that children grow best where they are loved richly, taught the Scriptures clearly, disciplined fairly, and led to Christ early. Fathers provide the necessary leadership and direction to the home, to ensure that it is a safe place to grow, a nurturing place to live, that fosters faith in the hearts of the children, and welcomes God's presence to dwell with them.
